"THE BULLS"

Today we meet the Kwinana Knights, and no doubt after their resounding victory against Thornlie, they will be extremely confident about today's encounter.

The Bulls have answered every challenge so far this year, but a word of warning: We must hit top gear from the first bounce or we could find ourselves in trouble. I know we can beat Kwinana, but it will take a concerted effort from every player. In last Sunday's game against Armadale too many players were content to run second and this complacency must be stamped out before it becomes infectious. In a very hard physical game the Bulls found it difficult to settle into any sort of system and with so many players playing spasmodic football, it was not until ten minutes into the last quarter that we got on top and eventually won by nine goals.

Best Players: Colin Tincknell, Dennis Cometti, Jim Butler (eight goals), Rod Mohr and Brian Godridge.

The Reserves consolidated their position at the top of the premiership ladder, and whilst they were not over-impressive, it is to be remembered that Jim Di Carlo is forced to change his side every week and it must be difficult for the players to settle down.

Best Players: Chris Bunce, Mick O'Halloran, Dave Reynolds, Mark Schmook and J. Slavin.

The committee of management would like to thank our coaches and selection committee, Dennis Cometti, Jim Di Carlo and Paul Mountain for their efforts in conducting a coaching clinic for our juniors during the school holidays. In spite of the criticism that floats about, our club is very conscious of our juniors and proof of this can be seen by the number of juniors who are playing in our senior grades.

Congratulations are extended to Jim Di Carlo, Jim Butler and Rod Mohr on their selection in the South Suburban League squad to play W.A.F.A. on 1st June. Also R. Jarvis, A. Bradshaw and G. Reynolds who are in the Reserves squad.

DEMONS DIGEST

'COME ALIVE - IN 75!'

Today we travel up the road to Kenwick, home of the Royals. Let's hope that it is not us who finish the day with the "blues." A double win today—and they can do it with more application to the game—is just what the club needs to boost its morale.

Last week at Gwynne Park the Reserves continued to improve, but still lack that killer instinct when they get on top, and consequently, let the opposition off the hook. At one stage they looked as if they could take Maddington, but buckled to a 6.7 to nil score in the third quarter. Good performances were put in by Colin Towers (must be a strong contender for a League place), Frank Woods, Jimmy Guthrie, Garry Turner, and the two "doctors," Forkin and O'Reilly.

The League side were equal to Maddington up to half time, but succumbed to well-drilled Maddington side in the second half to the tune of 10.8 to 3.0. Other than Kwinana, I can't see another side giving Maddington too many problems this year. The better players for the Demons were Terry Slater, who was probably the man of the match, Cec Winmar, "Tanglefoot" Connell, the consistent Mike Bingham, and Peter Smith.

To those players nominated from our club for the game against the W.A.F.A. next week, our heartiest congratulations. I'm sure that those to make the selected squads will acquit themselves well. Our best wishes go to all the players selected from the various clubs, and the officials from our League, involved with this game.

Guess who's using our slogan, "Come alive in '75!" TVW Channel Seven!

On a serious note now. At home games cars are NOT allowed to park beyond the scoreboard (as per the conditions of our permit from the Shire). Cars driving across the oval after the game in future will be reported to the Shire authorities, the driver/owner liable to a $100 fine. A notice to this effect is signposted at the entrance to the oval.

Secondly, it is noted that 50 per cent of the rubbish collected after the games is beer bottles and cans. Everybody knows that this is illegal, and to those responsible, be it on your own heads in future.

Don't blame the club if you get booked for any of these offences. This warning is the last warning. Enough said.

Individual performances are not good enough. A team effort is always required by all players with the determination to ram the nails home and squash other sides when we have them at our mercy. We made Kalamunda look like a power at times, yet they are nowhere near our class. Remember, third or fourth position is no good at all; premierships are more easily won from the top two positions.

The Reserves side displayed a true example of team dedication; very well done, a credit to the club and yourselves.

Hoping Kevin Miles makes a speedy recovery along with Bill Griffiths and Roy Fitzgerrald after his marriage.

Congratulations to Roy and wife on your happy event.

SOCIAL NOTES

Singapore trip tickets are practically nearly all sold.

Tee shirts still on sale only $2 each.

Today we meet our old rivals, Mandurah. Memories are fresh from last season to the thrashing they handed out to our club.

Four premiership points are a must for both Gosnells sides today, and believe me Mandurah will be no pushover.

Looking forward once again for the after-game social drink with Mandurah and urging all Gosnells players, supporters, to join in for a social chat and drink after our encounter with Mandurah.

THE KNIGHTS' NOTES

The delight of everyone over last week's great League win was thoroughly dampened over the serious injury sustained by Ross Tuttlebee in the Reserve game. Ross was playing in only his second game when making a comeback to football after a long period. His previous retirement was caused by a serious facial injury. Everyone in the club sincerely hopes that Ross makes a complete recovery and our thoughts are with his wife and family.

Now that we have overcome Thornlie we now face our greatest obstacle today when we meet undefeated Maddington. In last week's game we were put under pressure for the first time in some weeks and the team showed just how good they are by fighting on so strongly. We now know that our players are not just front runners and that they are thoroughly fit.

Best players: Bill Hazell, never beaten; Noel Vanheythuyzen classy display; Bill Dunn, brilliant marking Frank Legena, consistently brilliant; Kim Riley, regained confidence.

Special mention: Don Baskerville, all heart.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Frank Legena joined Kwinana halfway through last year from South Fremantle. He immediately showed what a great acquisition he would be to the club by his talking, encouragement to other players and his classy football. However, it is this season that Frank has really turned it on for the club. Each week he has been one of our best players and his new tactics of penetrating into the forward line has made all the difference to our side. Frank's disposal at all times is perfect and his use of handball is outstanding. He has great courage and is a fine team man. We hope Frank will be a Kwinana man for a long time to come.

The Reserves last week were beaten but they tried hard throughout. Best players were Murray Hunter, Trevor Read, Paul Frost and Bob Blowberger.

Congratulations to Murray Lloyd and Kerry on the birth of their daughter.

Quote of the week: You're not beaten until you think you are.—King Arthur.

WICK'S WEEKLY

Enthusiasm has grown once again in the Kenwick club following the winning double that was recorded against Canning last Sunday.

Although the winning margin in the League game was only small, it had no bearing on how the game was played. The Royals had practically 75 per cent of play throughout the match; however, inaccurate kicking for goal was once again evident. It is in this particular part of our play that we will have to improve.

It was pleasing to see those players who have not been showing their true form in earlier matches lift their game, and this was the main reason for our victory.

Best players League: Pat Dalton in the centre, who played a true captain's game; Jim Gilbert on a half back flank took many fine marks and always did something with the ball; Doug Backhouse also played a grand game on the half forward flank. Others to perform well were Neville Fry and Graeme Nicholas.

The Reserves side was not at its strongest, owing to several players being forced out of the side through injury. However, credit must go to those players who came into the side as they all contributed to the victory.

The game as a spectacle was marred because of heavy rain in the first half and the poor condition of the ground.

The best players in the Reserves were Angelo Filmognari on the wing, Darryl Ogg once again on the ball, and Ralph Martin. Mention must also be made of Barry Johnston who impressed in his first game.

Today we welcome Armadale to Mills Park, where it is hoped that the dedicated approach of all Kenwick players continues and that another double be recorded.

All Armadale players and supporters are invited to join us after the game for a few drinks.

Congratulations must go to all Kenwick players who have been selected to represent the S.S.M.N.F.L. against W.A.F.A. on June 1st.

KALAMUNDA KOUGARS

Last Sunday saw a renewal of spirit in the Kougars camp. In the first quarter Kalamunda took the initiative and scored three goals before Gosnells managed to score. However, a lapse in the second quarter enabled Gosnells to gain the ascendancy and open up a six goal lead at half time.

After the long break Kalamunda matched Gosnells everywhere but in front of goals. With Jeff Butcher dominating the packs, Peter Duckett playing well on a wing, Ian Butcher in the centre and Jim Hayes finding form at centre half back the team fought the game out.

One thing that we must remember, fellas, is that games of football are won with a hundred minutes of football and our second quarter and the few minutes in the final quarter when we relaxed, cost us the game. With this in mind, let's bring up our first win and begin our climb up the ladder.

Our cake stall efforts raised the club over $200; but, unfortunately, this was achieved by the help of the committee and only a handful of players. Our thanks go to Kim and the ladies — especially Kim's effort at baking cakes. Once again "ticket talking" Trevor showed us the Paul Hogan technique of chatting up the birds, with Sprayfresh Butch running a close second. SUCH STYLE!

Ball tickets will be on sale as from this week; $12 a double, supper and drinks provided, featuring "Nirvana" limited supply of 130 doubles are available.

TANLEFOOT

TIGER RAG

In a high standard game the Canning League side was defeated by an over-rated Kenwick. Canning looked winners up to the half time break but again allowed the opposition to regain the lead and take the four premiership points.

Canning, in the first half, capitalised on Kenwick's mistakes and looked like winning their second game. With John Vlahov and Greg Green again playing good football Canning received the necessary drive to enable a first half lead. Other good players were Peter Forrest and Peter Alero.

Bob Marks played strongly in the ruck and Brett Symonds also tried hard on the half forward flank. Both were playing in their first League game of the season.

The Reserves could not cope with the wet conditions and therefore were defeated by the stronger wet weather side. Rico Versteeg and Mick Worth played good wet weather football as did Lee Williams and Gordon Hunt.

A word of advice to all players—play four whole quarters of football and you will win.

SOCIALLY SPEAKING

Remember—the ball on 12th July at the Cannington Central. Tickets may be $20 a double, but they are worth every cent. It's up to every player, official and supporter to make this event successful, so hurry and purchase your tickets.

To other clubs: You are invited to attend our ball and to secure a ticket just approach any Canning footballer or official. Hoping to see you all there.

Bingo: Every Tuesday and Thursday nights at the Queens Park Hall—near the Coronation Hotel, 8 o'clock.

Today we meet Kalamunda and let's hope every Canning player does not take the game too easily and bring up our long-awaited for second double.

THE TIGER.

"IN THE LIONS LAIR"

Last Sunday saw the defeat of the League side by Kwinana in what proved to be a convincing performance by the victors. After watching Kwinana systematically destroy Thornlie. I am convinced that they will be a force this year in the finals. Thornlie did not seem to have an answer to Kwinana, although early in the last quarter we did get to within one goal of them.

It was a good tussle in the centre, with Clinton Farmer being selected best player for Thornlie. Others to play well were Ron Brown, Frank Geers, Ross Chappell and John Eddy (until injured).

Our Reserves showed great strength in defeating Kwinana very convincingly.

Throughout the game we were never pressured and were in no real danger of being beaten. A good performance, fellas; 100 per cent better than the week previous.

Reserves awards: Rob Treadrea, Harry Miles, Ralph Lewis.

This week's clash against the Bulldogs should be full of interest as both Kelm-scott and Thornlie will be fighting to secure a place in the four. So come on, Lions; let's get out there and roar like you never have before.
